SAN FRANCISCO

COSTA DA MORTE

May 2 at 7 pm, and May 3 at 9:15 pm at the Sundance Kabuki Cinemas.

Also showing on May 5 at 6:30 pm at Pacific Film Archives in Berkeley.

Documentary, Spain, 2013, 81 minutes. In Galician and Spanish. Directed by Lois Patiño.

The coast of death lies on Spain's Galician coast and is aptly named so for its treacherous waters that have extinguished lives and wrecked ships.

The still frames of Lois Patiño's documentary give one the luxury of contemplation of this storied place, of noticing the shifts in cloud formations or the differences in height between the ceaseless crashing of waves against the rocks

TAMBIEN LA LLUVIA

Tuesday, May 27, 2014 at 7 pm at Hall of Nations in Balboa Park

Icíar Bollaín, 2010, 103 minutes. In Spanish with English subtitles.

This smart fable stars Gael García Bernal as a heartthrob film director whose film crew starts to perpetuate the exploitation they hope to denounce. As he and his crew shoot a controversial film about Christopher Columbus in Cochabamba, Bolivia, local people rise up against plans to privatize the water supply. Icíar Bollaín's makes pertinent, if heavy handed, comparisons between European imperialism five centuries ago and modern globalization.
